

Each of the following statements gives an opinion about a plan: in each case, decide if the opinion is for or against ... and then briefly explain what part of the statement supports your judgement.

- 1) There are few reasons to oppose this plan, although one of them is unanswerable.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

- 2) Supporters of this plan are numerous, vocal, and misinformed.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

- 3) I endorse this plan emphatically.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

- 4) No reasonable person would oppose this plan.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

- 5) I find no merit in this plan.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

6) I cannot withhold support from this plan.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

7) This plan will significantly increase the level of friction within our organization.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

8) The principle merit of this plan is its avoidance of important problems that have always prevented success in the past.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

9) Despite the obvious difficulties that it presents, this plan is superior to other options.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____

10) The underlying assumptions of this plan require closer study.

For? _____

Against? _____

Support: _____
