I attest that the following statements are true:

- I am the sole copyright holder for the resource that I have submitted to TESL Canada on line Resource Centre. I have not assigned copyright to others in connection with the resource I have submitted.
- I indemnify TESL Canada and hold it harmless against any misuse of my material, including violation of my copyright.
- To the best of my knowledge, the materials are free of plagiarism and do not violate any copyright or other laws.
- I have submitted or will submit to TESL Canada written letters of permission for any material I have borrowed from the sources that goes beyond fair use. I understand that failure to submit these letters will lead TESL Canada to remove my resource from the TRC.
- The materials contain nothing defamatory, offensive, or otherwise improper.
- The references and citations in the materials are accurate.
- I understand that:
- My submission will appear on the TRC under my name.
- I will not receive any remuneration from TESL Canada for submitting a resource to the TRC.
- After I receive the TRC reviewers' comments, I am expected to revise my resource, and send it back for posting.
- TESL Canada retains the right to:
  - Format and edit resources for consistency, readability, and accessibility.
  - Decline resources that are not approved through the TESL Canada Resource Center review process.
  - Remove approved resources from TESL Canada's Web site for any reason at its sole discretion.
