

IDIOMS - BODY

1. Break a leg.
2. He's the apple of my eye.
3. See eye to eye
4. Twist someone's arm.
5. He has a chip on his shoulder.
6. She has a big (swollen) head.
7. Head over heels in love with someone
8. Butterflies in my stomach
9. Keep your fingers crossed.
10. Keep your chin up.
11. You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours.
12. Give me a hand.
13. Blow your top.

- a) I am very proud of my polite and intelligent son. He's _____.
- b) I agree with Alva. We _____.
- c) Hsiu Pin is very nervous about the exams. She has _____.
- d) Margaret is discouraged about learning English. I told her to _____.
- e) Horacio wants me to help him with English. I need help with Spanish. I told him _____.
- f) Tommy needs help washing his car. He asks Laura to _____.
- g) Yesterday, Irfan was very angry because Jose ate his lunch. He _____.
- h) Erica hopes she will be the president of the company someday. She is _____.
- i) Alberto is _____ with Rena.
- j) Young Kee thinks he is very handsome, the Tom Cruise of Korea. He has _____.
- k) Mario is starring on Broadway in a musical. We want him to perform well. We told him to _____.
- l) Pat wants Pamela to sing a song to the ESL class, but Pamela doesn't want to. Pat will have to _____ to convince her.
- m) Because Pierre thinks he is such a good dancer, he often criticizes his classmates; so, they say he has _____.