Parallel Writing

This passage is about bad writers. It describes what bad writers do and it gives examples. Study the passage. Then, write your own passage. Write sentences like the sentences in the passage. Use new information. Begin your passage with, Bad drivers... Bad children... Bad parents... or Bad cooks...

Bad writers have several annoying habits. First of all, they do not use capital letters when they begin a sentence and they do not put in punctuation. In addition, they write their sentences incorrectly. The sentences do not make sense because they do not have a complete idea. Worst of all, bad writers forget all about the rules of grammar. For example, they do not use the correct tenses and, when the subject is singular, they do not put 's' on the verb.
