

Writing Puzzle: House or Apartment?

Discuss this topic. Write at least six sentences. You must use two sentences from one of the lists, and one from the other List. You can make small changes in the sentences, but you must not change their meaning.

List A says that houses are good. List B says that apartments are good. What do you think?

Use two sentences from the List that agrees with your own ideas. Use one sentence from the list that does not agree. You have to explain your own opinion but you also have to respect the ideas of others

Write the sentence number – (1), (2), etc – before each sentence you choose. You do not need to use the sentences in order.

List A

1. Houses have more space than apartments.
2. Houses are quieter than apartments.
3. Houses are more beautiful than apartments.

List B

4. Small apartments are easier to heat or cool than houses.
5. Apartments can have a nice balcony.
6. Apartments are cheaper than houses.
