

TESL Canada Travel Grant TESL Canada Conference 2017

TESL Canada is awarding five (5) travel grants of $500.00 each to five (5) first time TESL Canada Conference presenters for the upcoming 2017 TESL Canada Conference, June 8-10, 2017, in Niagara Falls, Ontario. This is a one-time only travel grant for each recipient.

An applicant must:

1. Be a TESL Canada member at the time of application.
2. Have never before presented at a TESL Canada conference.
3. Submit this application including a Statement of Interest (250 words max) and one letter of support from a person in a supervisory role familiar with the applicant's TESL related work.
4. Submit original receipts for travel, accommodation and conference registration to the TESL Canada head office by July 10th, 2017.

To apply for this grant, please complete the following form and submit it along with an accompanying letter of support via email to admin@tesl.ca with the subject line "TESL Canada Travel Grant Application Form" by March 1st, 2017.

Grant recipients will be selected and notified by March 31st, 2017. In the event that there are more eligible applicants than grants available, a draw will determine who the recipients will be.

Recipients will be encouraged to submit a report to their local TESL organization newsletter outlining their participation at the conference.
